BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The Philadelphia Ledger describes enlarge as a breakfast for farm cattle.

A cry is going up for three-escape on college dormitories, although the ordinary college boy is not easily entrapped by fire or anything else.

California is destined to become one of the greatest wine-producing districts in the world. Thousands of acres are planted with vines every year.

A Philadelphia man drank on a wagon a pint of apple juice at a gulp, fell to the floor and couldn't speak for a day. The doctors think he will recover.

The Executive Committee of the National Greenback party in Washington is preparing an address to the country which will be issued in a few days.

The Prohibitionists of New Jersey are to hold a delegate State Convention in Trenton, May 2, to nominate a candidate for Governor who entertains their views.

Idaho's population is said to be Mormon in the proportion of two to one—that is, two women to one man. It is unfortunate that the plural of Mormon is not more men.

A phenologist the other day advised the Hon. Emerson Etheridge, of Tennessee, ex-Congressman, &c., that, if not too late, he had better cultivate a taste for public life.

A young lady in Washington society succeeded in compassing within the limits of a single day, a luncheon, twenty-one calls, three afternoon teas, a dinner, three parties and a German.

Natives of Madagascar have given $1,000, 000 in the last ten years to spread the Gospel. The advance of Christianity in that island is one of the most remarkable achievements in the history of missions.

A Baltimore Coroner's jury found in the case of a colored woman on Friday "that she came to her death from natural causes —cramp colic, produced by eating sausage for breakfast—and in the opinion of the jury the sausage was good."

A telegram from Savannah, Ga., says that the report of the City Treasury investigation shows a deficit of $14,000. Democratic office holders in the South seem to be proving that they are apt pupils of the worst of the despised "carpet-baggers."

The Macon, Ga., Telegraph is credited with the statement that the Rev. Elihu Blackshear, of Thomaston, Ga., pronounced James White and Delilah Anderson man and wife fell into the arms of the attendant, dead, of heart disease.

Ross, the shoemaker of Wells Fargo & Co.'s express, who saved the treasure when the last effort was made to rob the Eastbound express of the Central Pacific, stands six feet four inches in his stockings, and began life as a gambler.
This is the fourth time that he has beaten off the road agents.
